Mark your calendar: Sunday, April 29th, 7:00 PM!

For three decades the Rev. Dr. Naim Ateek, a former Canon of St. George's Cathedral, Jerusalem, and the founder of the Palestinian liberation theology movement, has been inspiring readers with his ideas about faith, justice, and the Holy Land. He has been at the forefront not only of efforts to bring the plight of Palestinian Christians to the world's attention, but also of the quest to theologically re-think the place of the Holy Land's indigenous people in Christian faith and scripture.

Hear Naim Ateek speak on "The Bible, Justice and the Palestine-Israel Conflict", Sunday, April 29th at 7:00 PM at SMU, Sobey's building, 923 Robie Street, Halifax. There will be time for questions and book purchase & signing. Sponsors: Department of Religious Studies, SMU, Anglican Diocese of NSPEI, United Network for Justice and Peace for Palestine and Israel, KAIROS Halifax and Atlantic, and Canadians, Arabs and Jews for a Just Peace. Come and invite others!

Cleanup/Spruce-up Day: Help needed

This event is being held again on Tuesday, 8 May and Saturday, 12 May (for those not able to come on Tuesday), between 8:30 am and 11:00 am. Please begin thinking of things that you can do around our church. Ideas: clean pews, baseboards; remove cobwebs; paint office windows; remove curtains (as recommended by the fire inspector); clean window panes; re-paint lines in parking lot, sort items in storage such as "keep" and "recycle". Your help would be appreciated. If there is a job that you can do or plan, alone or with others, please discuss your ideas with me, especially if special items must be purchased.
