Flea Market Follow-Up

some of the tables set up at the flea market were specific to certain people with most of the profits going towards them. On one table, a flute marked with the value of $40 must have been picked up and paid for at another table. Does anyone recall this? If yes, could you please contact Rhonda at burketiggerbear@outlook.com? Thank you.

Stairs is looking for a Facebook administrator.

If you know how to create events and post on facebook, and would be willing to take on the job of maintaining our facebook page, we would love to hear from you. Please speak to Sarah.
